Standard Conditions #6: You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.

Supporting Evidence: Mr. Bacon is alleged to be in violation of his conditions of supervised release by failing to be available for scheduled home visits on August 25, and September 1, 2023.

On August 24, 2023, Mr. Bacon was in the U.S. Probation Office where he was advised a home visit would be conducted at his address of record the following day, August 25, 2023. When the undersigned officer visited his residence, his niece advised that Mr. Bacon had left a few hours prior to this officer's arrival and she did not know where he went. Around 5:30 p.m. that day, Mr. Bacon sent this officer a text message stating he was "working in the woods."

On August 28, 2023, Mr. Bacon was again in the probation office where he was again directed to be home at 9 a.m. on September 1, 2023, so a home visit could be conducted. On September 1, 2023, the undersigned officer contacted his niece who again informed the undersigned officer that Mr. Bacon was not home. She advised Mr. Bacon was at the house the day prior, but left and never returned. Approximately 1 hour later, the undersigned officer spoke with Mr. Bacon who advised that he was in Spokane. Mr. Bacon is prohibiting the undersigned from visiting him at his home per the conditions of his supervision.

Standard Condition #5: You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of the change or expected change.

Supporting Evidence: It is alleged Mr. Bacon is in violation of his conditions of supervised release by failing to disclose to the undersigned officer a change in his living situation or anything about his living arrangements since August 23, 2023.

On August 23, 2023, Mr. Bacon was terminated from the Pura Vida house and he informed the undersigned officer that he would be staying with his niece and provided her address as the residence where he would be staying going forward. On September 1, 2023, when the undersigned officer attempted to contact Mr. Bacon at the residence, the undersigned officer was informed that Mr. Bacon has only stayed at the residence a couple of times. His niece was contacted again on September 5, 2023, to see if Mr. Bacon had returned to the residence and she advised she had not seen him.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a WARRANT requiring the offender to appear to answer to the allegation(s) contained in this petition.
